Global Access to Nutrition Index 2018: Monitoring the efforts made by the world's largest food and beverage manufacturers to tackle undernutrition

Side event details:

- ➔ Thursday November 29, 2018
- ➔ 18:00 - 19:30
- ➔ Centara Grand at Central World, Room M4, Bangkok

Almost half of all deaths of children under five are linked to undernutrition. The Global Access to Nutrition Index, released earlier this year, is designed to track the contribution of food and beverage manufacturers to address global nutrition challenges and to encourage them to do more.

The Global Index features a sub-ranking which focuses specifically on the undernutrition commitments and practices of the companies.

At this event, the Access to Nutrition Foundation will share the results of the Global Index 2018. A panel discussion will then explore how we can further monitor and strengthen the role the private sector is playing in ending undernutrition and working towards a world with zero hunger, as outlined in the Sustainable Development Goals.
